

Bike riders next Tuesday

EIGHTEEN bike riders on their way around Australia will be in St. Arnaud overnight, next Tuesday, October 6th.

They are riding for Rotary Health Research funds to raise money for mental health research and education programs.

In St. Arnaud the riders will be welcomed by the Mayor of Northern Grampians, Cr Kevin Erwin at approximately 2pm at Queen Mary Gardens.

They will be billeted at the old Convent, courtesy of owner Brian Roche and Rotary will provide dinner and breakfast.

Local riders wishing to join the group to ride into St. Arnaud must register with Dick Bray for Rotary Insurance purposes.

The riders will be coming from Swan Hill to St. Arnaud.
